"The Convention belongs to you!":
video-clip marking 60th anniversary of European Convention on Human Rights

To mark the sixtieth anniversary of the European Convention on Human Rights, the Court has produced a 3-minute video-clip presenting the 15 main rights and freedoms in the Convention and its Protocols. Aimed at a wide range of viewers, especially in the 15-25 age bracket, the video-clip is currently available in English and French, with versions in other languages of member States to be developed during the year. You can see video clip here:

The European Web Site on Integration is one year old!

The Site www.integration.eu is intended as a tool for people working in the field of integration, both in non-government and government organisations.

The Web Site covers all dimensions of integration and gathers information from a wide variety of stakeholders. It has been designed for use by national, regional and local authorities, by civil society organisations, and by practitioners in local organisations.

The aim is also to develop the Site as an EU-wide platform for networking on integration, through exchange about policy and practice.
