European Action
Week against Racism and Discrimination –
21-28 March 2014

21 March was established by the United Nations as the International Day for the Elimination of Racial Discrimination long ago in 1966. On this occasion the No Hate Speech Movement is organising a European Action Week against Racism and Discrimination on 21-28 March in order to express solidarity with people suffering from discrimination in Europe today.

ACTION 1. The Activists of the Movement collected 21 Shocking Facts about Racism. Read them and share them with your friends and check out how much you know about racism with the help of our funny Online Quiz.

ACTION 2. Report any hate speech case that is related to Racism and Discrimination to the Hate Speech Watch. Online activists will select some reports and they will organise online actions during the Action Week. Follow us on Facebook and Twitter #nohatespeech if you want to support these actions.

ACTION 3. Look at the collection of memes/images prepared for this Action Week and Create your No Hate Speech Card or create your meme and upload them here. Share them on Facebook, Twitter or Tumblr.

ACTION 4. Read some interesting articles about racism and discrimination that will be posted on the No Hate Speech BLOG. If you have a story to tell or you want to write an article with your opinion you can send it tonohatespeech.movement@gmail.com

Conference on multiple discrimination affecting Roma young people

This youth event, organised by the Council of Europe, aims to bring together a diversity of youth organisations, Roma and non-Roma, that have in common their work on issues relating to discrimination, and also other profiles of participants, such as researchers and policy makers.

Candidates should apply by using the online application form

EUROPEAN COMMISSION NEWS

Policy dialogue on marginalization and inequalities facing youth

This dialogue brings together academics, practitioners, civil society and young people to discuss their experiences with youth marginalization and identify specific proposals and solutions on the local, country and international levels. The event is organized by the Columbia Global Policy Initiative at Columbia University together with the Office of the Secretary-General's Envoy on Youth.

Join in online at: UN Live United Nations.

European Elections 2014

Every EU member state has its own electoral laws, this means this country decides on what day polls will be open during the four-day election period from 22 to 25 May 2014. The results from all 28 states will be announced on the evening of Sunday 25 May. Check out this infographic with the national rules for the European Elections.
