

COUNCIL OF EUROPE NEWS

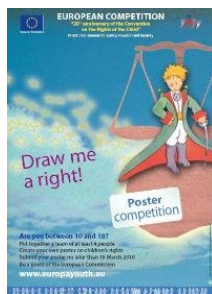

Safer Internet Day 2010 "Think before you post!"

The Council of Europe has launched on 9 February – on Safer Internet Day – an online teacher's guide to safer Internet for children in six languages.

The Teacher's Guide to the online game for children Through the Wild Web Woods aims to assist educators in helping children to use the Internet safely and responsibly.

http://www.wildwebwoods.org/popup_langSelection.php

EUROPEAN COMMISSION NEWS

New poster competition on children's rights!

The European Commission, DG Justice, Freedom and Security is dedicating the 4th edition of its poster competition to celebrating the anniversary of this important agreement.

Deadline: 19th March 2010

<http://www.europayouth.eu/>

SEMINARS, CONFERENCES

Call To Europe Youth Leaders Conference on Human Rights, Social Inclusion and Youth Participation

21 -27 March 2010

Rotterdam and Amsterdam, The Netherlands

Last Call for Nomination!

Application deadline: 1st of March 2010

For more information please refer to communication@calltoeurope.nl

www.calltoeurope.nl

Europe Meets Russia: A Forum for Young Leaders April 11th - 16th, 2010, Berlin

A Forum for Young Leaders (EMR) is an active network of young, dynamic, and influential people from across the world who have a current interest in the European-Russian relationship. The program has been developed in recognition of the importance of the relationship to Russia, Europe, and the global political system.

More information here:

<http://www.culturaldiplomacy.org>

UNITED Conference in Budapest , 11-16 May 2010 „Europe All Inclusive? Minorities on the Edge of Society”

The conference intends to develop counter strategies and practical responses to situations of discrimination and intolerance, providing an exchange platform of knowledge and good practice to develop the practical working methods of local NGOs and strategies for the inclusion of minority groups. The conference is planned for 70-75 participants who represent anti-racist, anti-fascist, refugee, human rights and minority rights organisations.

The conference language is English.

Deadline for nominations 19 March 2010

If your organisation is interested to nominate a representative, please contact by email
budapest@unitedagainstracism.org

COMPETITIONS

Award for Intercultural Commitment

With its Award for Intercultural Commitment, presented for the first time in 2010, the BMW Group intends to intensify its efforts to bridge the gap between different cultures. Applicants with promising ideas that promote intercultural understanding are invited to submit their project proposals by 31 May 2010.

The top three applicants will be announced at the award ceremony hosted in Munich on 18 November 2010.

To turn their ideas into thriving projects, the BMW Group will support them with prize money and a customized package of services.

The company's goal is to assist the teams behind the honored initiatives in establishing sustainable model concepts for intercultural understanding worldwide.